
We are excited to let you know the Duke-DKU Global Fellows Program which is designed to offer an international experience to post-doctoral scholars or advanced doctoral students whose records demonstrate excellence in teaching and an interest in pursuing an academic career. Duke-DKU Global fellows teach at Duke Kunshan University. Up to five (5) Fellows will be named for 2019-2020.

Fellows will teach two courses over a 5-month stay at DKU. Courses might include sections of common courses, distinct elective courses, lab sections or recitations. Assignment of classes will be determined by Fellow specific expertise and by DKU teaching needs.

The award carries a $13,000 stipend ($17,000 for fellows who have completed their PhD), a $1,500 allowance for costs related to research or course preparation, travel costs to/from China, health insurance, and a housing allowance.

Please could you forward this information to the faculty, post-doctoral fellow and advanced doctoral students in your department? Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis up to Monday, December 31, 2018 at 5:00PM.

Best regards,

Noah Pickus

Duke University Associate Provost &
Dean of Curriculum & Faculty Development at DKU

Duke-DKU Global Fellows Program

Guidelines for the 2019-2020 Fellowship

Applications accepted on a rolling basis up to Monday, December 31, 2018, by 5pm

The Duke-DKU Global Fellows Program is designed to offer an international experience to post-doctoral scholars or advanced doctoral students whose records demonstrate excellence in teaching and an interest in pursuing an academic career. Duke-DKU Global fellows teach at Duke Kunshan University. Up to five (5) Fellows will be named for 2019-2020.

Fellows will teach two courses over a 5-month stay at DKU. Most courses at DKU are taught in 7-week terms; a few courses are taught over a semester. Contact hours for all classes are the same; in particular, the number of contact hours for a 7-week course is the same as a 14-week course. Fellows may teach courses in 7-week terms or a semester long term structure, depending on the course configuration and DKU needs. Courses might include sections of common courses, distinct elective courses, lab sections or recitations. Assignment of classes will be determined by Fellow specific expertise and by DKU teaching needs.

The award carries a $13,000 stipend ($17,000 for fellows who have completed their PhD), a $1,500 allowance for costs related to research or course preparation, travel costs to/from China, health insurance, and a housing allowance.

For 2019-20, we are especially interested in post-doctoral or advanced doctoral students who teach in areas including but not limited to the following:

- Physics, Chemistry, Biology, Neuroscience
- Math, Computer Science, Data Science, Statistics
- Economics, Sociology, Psychology
- Global Health, Environmental Science, Public Policy
- Pre-Modern Chinese History, U.S. and Comparative Literature, Cultural Studies

Eligibility for the Duke-DKU Global Fellows Program

- A. Applicants must have recently completed a university doctoral program, or be full time students, in good standing, in a university doctoral program and have advanced to doctoral candidate status at the time of application. Students who expect to complete their doctoral degree before the fellowship year begins are also welcome to apply.
- B. Applicants should:
 - a. Have completed between 5 and 7 years of doctoral study at the time of application.
 - b. Be able to participate in the fellowship for at least one semester of the 2018-19 academic year. Conditional on a successful review, fellows will have the option to be renewed for a second semester.
 - c. Expect to devote themselves full time to their teaching and research in the semester at DKU. Fellows may not undertake other teaching or research opportunities at DKU, Duke or elsewhere during the period of the fellowship.

NOTE FOR DUKE APPLICANTS ONLY: When applicable, the DKU Global Fellows Program replaces other graduate school stipend and scholarship funding a student may have been scheduled to receive for the fellowship year. Eligibility for other funding cannot be “banked” for use in a subsequent year, though this should not limit a department’s internal funding structure. Fellows who receive offers for other awards should contact the Graduate School to determine whether the two awards may be held concurrently. The Duke-DKU Fellowship will cover tuition fees at Duke University for a semester.

Selection Process

- A. Applicants from all disciplines are invited to apply.
- B. Preference will be given to applicants with demonstrated excellence in teaching, a commitment to liberal arts education, and who have completed their dissertation or are close to completing their dissertation.
- C. Fellow selection will be guided by the need, priorities and preferences for particular fields and courses expressed by DKU. The number and type of Fellows needed will vary somewhat from year to year.

Application Process

Application

The MyResearchProposal online application software is used to submit applications.

You will be asked to upload the following documents:

- 1) A current curriculum vitae.
- 2) A cover letter outlining your teaching experience and interests; preference (if any) for Fall or Spring semester; long-term career goals.
- 3) Your university transcript (a copy of an unofficial transcripts issued to the student is acceptable).
- 4) A teaching statement, describing teaching goals, strategies, and/or philosophy.
- 5) A one-page summary of (a) all quantitative evaluation data for courses taught or TA’d and (b) the two most prominent positive and negative themes from the qualitative data.
- 6) A one page outline of your dissertation, including completion status and timeline.
- 7) A letter of support from your Ph.D. advisor or postdoc supervisor describing your dissertation status and progress, and your fit with this fellowship program.
- 8) At least one faculty letter of recommendation assessing your teaching skills and scholarly promise.

Instructions:

- To apply visit <http://bit.ly/myresearchproposal>, click on “Create New User” (or log in if you already have an account).
- Applicant instructions for applying via the MyResearchProposal software is available - Please review this document.
- Enter Access Code ‘PROVOST’ then select the Duke-DKU Global Fellows Program opportunity and follow the instructions.
- Letters of recommendation can be sent as PDFs to carolyn.mackman@duke.edu
Letters should be saved using the following format:

Applicant Last Name_DKU Fellowship_Letter writer last name
e.g. A letter for Joey Young, written by Dr. A. Smith would be named:
Young_DKU Fellowship_Smith

- For any questions concerning MyResearchProposal passwords or system issues, please contact Lesia O'Hara or Anita Grissom at myresearchproposal@duke.edu.

Award Notifications

Applicants will be notified of award decisions by January 31, 2019.