WHO WE ARE
The Office of Inspector General (OIG) for the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) fights waste, fraud, and abuse in HHS programs including Medicare, Medicaid, Healthcare Marketplaces, NIH, FDA, CDC and more. OIG HHS is the largest Federal inspector general’s office, employing a nationwide network of auditors, investigators, attorneys, and evaluators to provide program recommendations to decision-makers, distribute educational resources to the industry and public, and investigate cases to root out fraud.

OFFICE OF EVALUATION AND INSPECTIONS (OEI)
The mission of OEI is to protect the integrity of HHS programs, as well as the health and welfare of beneficiaries, by conducting evaluations and producing reports that provide timely, useful, and reliable information and advice to decision makers. The purpose of evaluations includes measuring the effectiveness of Departmental legislation, policies, and procedures; assessing efficiency of operations; and identifying vulnerabilities to fraud, waste, and abuse. The inspections provide decision makers with current, reliable data on high-impact, targeted issues important to high level officials.

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY
As an intern you will:
- Apply qualitative and quantitative methods for studies from planning through fact-finding to reporting results.
- Analyze and evaluate the effectiveness of Medicare, Medicaid, and public health and human service programs to identify program vulnerabilities and potential waste, fraud, and abuse.
- Provide assistance on program operations to senior program analysts and program staff for effective implementation of office goals and priorities.
- Have the opportunity to be noncompetitively converted to a term or permanent appointment after successful completion of the internship program.
YOUR DEVELOPMENT

- Work as part of team to design and conduct high-quality evaluations that improve Federal programs
- Benefit from unique access to data that allows you to develop your analytical skill set in a professional environment
- Experience an environment of continuous learning through coaching, mentoring, and formal training. OEI believes that individual growth leads to organizational success.
- Develop alongside other motivated, energetic, and talented individuals. Organizationally, OEI is committed to diversity, and values rigorous analysis, critical thinking, strong writing, and effective collaboration.
