FULL-TIME RESEARCH POSITION ON SCIENCE OF PATIENT INPUT

The Office of Biostatistics and Epidemiology (OBE) in the Center for Biologics Evaluation and Research (CBER) at the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) in Silver Spring, MD is seeking a full-time ORISE Fellow with experience or interest in patient-reported outcomes, patient preference information, or patient experience data. The candidate will be part of a team advancing the science of patient input for biologics through research. Candidates must undergo a background investigation and need to have resided in the United States for at least three of the past five years. Apply by email to CBER-SPI@fda.hhs.gov including resume/CV and the name of two professional references using the words “patient input fellow” in the email subject.

Office and Division: Office of Biostatistics and Epidemiology, CBER

Location: US FDA – White Oak Campus

Full-time or part-time: Full-time

Number of positions available: 1

Desired appointment start date: Soonest available

Length of appointment: 9 months, with potential for extension

Types of appointment: Student, Postgraduate

Education requirements: A master’s or doctoral degree in public health, epidemiology, bioinformatics, biostatistics, psychometrics, health economics, social and behavioral sciences, medicine, or related fields

Additional skills and/or experience considered favorable: Strong written and oral communication.