Job Description
===============

The Department of Statistics at the University of Florida invites applications for a full-time, nine-month, tenure-track Assistant Professor to begin in August 2017. We are particularly interested in candidates with research interests in the analysis of spatio-temporal data, statistical/machine learning, and other data intensive and computationally intensive areas. Duties include teaching, research, and service.

The University of Florida is an equal opportunity institution dedicated to building a broadly diverse and inclusive faculty and staff. Searches are conducted in accordance with Florida's Sunshine Law. If an accommodation due to disability is needed to apply for this position, please call (352) 392-2477 or the Florida Relay System at (800) 955-8771 (TDD).

Salary
======

Salary is competitive, commensurate with qualifications and experience, and includes a full benefits package.

Minimum Requirements
=====================

A PhD in statistics or a closely related field is required.

Instructions to Applicants
============================

For full consideration, applications must be submitted online at [jobs.ufl.edu/] job number 499048, and must include: (1) a letter summarizing the applicant's qualifications, ongoing research directions, and interests in the Department, (2) a complete curriculum vitae, and (3) teaching/research statement. In addition, names and email address for three references must be provided on the application. An email will be sent automatically to your references, requesting them to upload their letter.
