Department of Statistics, University of Chicago: Assistant Professor

The Department of Statistics at the University of Chicago invites applications from exceptionally qualified candidates for faculty positions at the rank of Assistant Professor. We seek individuals doing advanced research in statistical methodology or theory or in related fields. As part of a University of Chicago initiative, applicants could be working in scientifically focused computation or applied mathematics, but hiring is not limited to that initiative. It is expected that all successful applicants will engage in the direction of doctoral dissertations, as well as teaching at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Interdisciplinary collaboration will be particularly valued.

While applicants do not need to be specifically trained in statistics, they must have completed all requirements for the Ph.D. by the time of hire in statistics or some field of mathematics or science where statistical concepts play an important role.

Appointments may be made jointly with another department in the University. A demonstrated research excellence appropriate to the rank is essential; some teaching experience in the mathematical sciences is preferred.

Applicants must apply online at the University of Chicago Academic Jobs website at http://tinyurl.com/ow4tpn8. To be considered an applicant, a cover letter, CV, and three letters of reference are required. Referral letter submission information will be provided during the application process. You may also upload research and teaching statements as well as up to three relevant research publications, but they are not required.

Application screening will begin November 1, 2015, and continue until all positions are filled or the search is closed.

All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, protected veteran status or status as an individual with disability. The University of Chicago is an Affirmative Action / Equal Opportunity / Disabled / Veterans Employer. Job seekers in need of a reasonable accommodation to complete the application process should call 773-702-5671 or email ACOppAdministrator@uchicago.edu with their request.
