Academic Career Opportunities
Position Title: Assistant Professor
Req # 01857

The Department of Statistics at the University of Chicago invites applications from exceptionally qualified candidates for faculty positions at the rank of Assistant Professor. We seek individuals doing advanced research in statistical methodology or theory or in related fields. As part of a University of Chicago initiative, applicants could be working in scientifically focused computation or applied mathematics, but hiring is not limited to that initiative. It is expected that all successful applicants will engage in the direction of doctoral dissertations, as well as teaching at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Interdisciplinary collaboration will be particularly valued. While applicants do not need to be specifically trained in statistics, they must have doctorates in statistics or some field of mathematics or science where statistical concepts play an important role. Doctorate must be in hand at the time of appointment. Appointments may be made jointly with another department in the University. A demonstrated research excellence appropriate to the rank is essential. Applicants must apply online at the University of Chicago Academic Jobs website at http://tinyurl.com/mct7w4e, and must upload a cover letter and CV. You may also upload research and teaching statements as well as up to three relevant research publications, but they are not required. In addition, three letters of reference will be required. Referral letter submission information will be provided during the application process. Application screening will begin November 1, 2013; submission by December 1, 2013, will ensure consideration during this academic year, but the search will continue until all positions are filled or the search is closed.

Inquiries should be sent to the Search Committee at search@galton.uchicago.edu or to Search Committee, Department of Statistics, Eck 108, University of Chicago, 5734 S. University Avenue, Chicago, IL 60637.
