Non-Tenure-Track Statistics Positions Starting Fall 2017
Department of Statistics and Actuarial Science
University of Iowa

The Department of Statistics and Actuarial Science invites applications for one or more non-tenure-track faculty positions on a one-year appointment to teach statistics during the 2017-18 academic year, subject to budgetary approval. Applications are welcome for part-time (up to 87% time) employment, and are potentially renewable. Applicants should possess a PhD in statistics or a related area, in hand by the start date of the appointment. Excellent communications skills are essential. Common research interests with current faculty and experience teaching statistics courses are desired. Fall appointments begin August 16, 2017, and candidates must be legally able to work in the United States on that date. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until all positions have been filled.

Applications should be submitted on line at http://jobs.uiowa.edu. Refer to requisition #70413.

Applications should include a cover letter, a current CV, and academic transcript(s). Three letters of reference should be sent directly to the search committee by the letter writers. Letters should particularly address the applicant’s potential for excellence in teaching and should be sent to: stat-searchcommittee@list.uiowa.edu. Hardcopy letters can be mailed to the following address, if necessary.
