University of Utah School of Medicine: multiple positions

The University of Utah has positions for biostatisticians who work in in the areas of health equity/disparities, tobacco prevention, and cessation, cancer prevention and control, health services research, next generation primary care, life course epidemiology, occupational health, environmental health, and global health.

There are multiple tenure track and research track positions available. Here are the links:

Tenure track: employment.utah.edu/salt-lake-city-ut/...
Research track: employment.utah.edu/salt-lake-city-ut/...