

Job Opportunity

Hello!

I'm hiring for a staff position at either the Senior Research Associate or Research Scientist level at George Washington University in Washington DC. I'd appreciate it if you could spread my postings through your networks. I'd also be happy to have you send anyone who might be interested my way.

Interested persons can apply to one of these two links, as appropriate given past experience:

<https://www.gwu.jobs/postings/87625>

Either of these positions could also be translated into a formal postdoc position if that is of more interest to the candidate.

Thank you!

Melinda
